

Subject Knowledge Sessions

Suggestions from Liz Lord, Portsmouth

1. Reflect on aspects of subject knowledge in second teaching language to be developed.
2. Develop knowledge and understanding of the GCSE content and examination requirements.
3. Complete past papers in listening and reading (available on exam board (AQA) website) – self mark using mark sheets, or ask a language buddy to mark.
4. Complete writing papers for Foundation and Higher tiers. Ask a language buddy to mark using the mark scheme provided.
5. Prepare answers for the General Conversation part of the speaking test. Ask a language buddy to conduct a conversation with you on your prepared topics.
6. Research the websites provided and focus on specific grammar areas you wish to develop.
7. Read newspapers or watch news programmes in the target language.
8. Watch a film or series in the target language and discuss with a language buddy.
