

ALL Council Meeting

4th July 2024

Primary Decolonising the Curriculum SIG
Report for 2023-2024

Activities

- Meetings x 2 Autumn and Summer
- Particular Language focus

Autumn Term focus –Spanish language and its journey to the Americas...

Paula Ambrossi (UCL Institute of Education) shared a paper: “The Languages we speak and the empires we embrace: addressing decolonization through the gaze of the empire”

Activities

Summer Term focus – German language

Rodeane Henry-Grant (University of London) PhD student shared her thoughts about language teaching and the resources we use.

She invited us to take a few seconds when planning to think about the images we are sharing with pupils....

Zazie Olivia Beetz

- was born in Berlin in 1991
- German father
- Afro-American mother
- Actress
- Grew up bilingually (German, English)
- French graduate

Our first face to face talk in a South London school

Invited by the South London ALL Hub (Miriam Paridjanian)

It was a customised request and we rose to the challenge

Let's talk about the heroines of French colonial past!

Our presentation was about La Réunion and the victims of slavery and in particular the heroine ...

Héva.

Gilbert Clain. 2000.

Sculpture installée à
Salazie, place d'Hell-
Bourg.

Photographie Ibrahim
Mulin.

Droits réservés

Going forward into Academic Year 2024-2025

We have invited two speakers Maud Waret and Ellie Chettle-Cully.

We also are aiming to add more to our theme of heroes and heroines from the other French, Spanish and German colonial pasts to our resources bank.

At the moment we are thinking about the wonderful free exhibition Discover Degas and Miss La La..

Finally...

At the moment we are thinking about the wonderful free exhibition at the National Gallery:

Discover Degas and Miss La La..

